

Chattooga River

Application Process:

All visitors to the national forests in North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia wishing to float the upper or lower segments of the Chattooga Wild and Scenic River must carry a self-registration permit at all times. Visitors can pick up a permit (free) at put-ins along the upper and lower river. Please place the top copy in the registration box at the put-in location and keep the yellow copy with you in a dry pack. Detailed rules and regulations are posted on information boards at each location, and are also printed on your self-registration permit.

Application Fees: None

Additional Information:

To view a list of put-ins in SC, NC and GA and a sample permit with a complete list of the conditions of self-registration visit the Chattooga Wild and Scenic page.
