

Supporting Professionals
Who Study, Protect, and Manage
North America's Rivers

The RMS Journal is a publication whose articles highlight the work of river professionals, by river professionals. It is published quarterly and features one of our regional chapters on a rotating schedule. Individual and Lifetime River Management Society (RMS) members and primary contacts for Organizational memberships can choose to receive a print version of the RMS Journal as a membership benefit; all other members receive the digital edition. The most recent issue can be found publicly on the RMS homepage; past issues are available online to members.

Submission Guidelines

There is no minimum or maximum length requirement. Most articles are 1-2 pages (500-1000 words) with photos, images, and/or figures. Images must be at least 300 dpi (over 1MB in size).

Submit articles as a Word document or Google Document to your RMS chapter officers. For questions about chapter-related content or officers, contact the Executive Director. For questions about content-appropriateness, contact the Editor.

Submit photos and graphics as individual image files (e.g., TIFF, JPG, PNG, GIF, PDF). Submissions may have embedded photos in the Word document to indicate placement and provide captions, but please also send individual photo files.

Articles will be reformatted in InDesign, so will not necessarily “look” like the original submission.

Articles may be edited for length and clarity, but opinions will not be altered. Authors will be contacted if significant revisions are needed.
